West Haven, Conn., July 5, 1906. Jno. J. Fulton Co.—Dear Sirs: I have been in the New Haven General Hospibeen in the New Haven General Hospital three times in a year for Bright's Disease, My eyesight failed so I thought I would go blind. They told me in the hospital I would not be any better and sent me home to die. But your Renal 28th at 7:30. Compound has me on earth yet, and I stand a good chance to stay some time. I was away down, but am gaining in weight and my sight has come back. Your compound has gotten me so I can go to work. I work at the railroad, and a man has to be all right to work there. I am not going away to die, but back to my work next week, good and strong once more.
